

At D&N Livestock we feed West Central pellets to our heifers to ensure they are in prime breeding condition in the spring. The pellets are also a cost effective and efficient feed source to background our calves. We get consistent and uniform growth results, and that's what we're looking for."

~ Tracy Sproat for Dave Rajotte.