

We have been using Lamb Pellets from West Central Pelleting for many years now and they have made a huge impact on the overall performance of our lamb crop. We offer the pellets free choice as creep feed to the lambs as early as three weeks of age and we consistently wean out with a great overall rate of gain. Our lambs have a steady appetite with consistent growth that can be seen in the end product we have produced for years now.